evaporating plant, it has been learned that the city of Medford, through a prominent bank, has offered the Wittenberg-King company two full city blocks, with other concessions as an inducement for the firm to build its contemplated new $80,000 plant there. Independence has also made the local company flattering offers.

That the Wittenberg-King company is experiencing difficulty in securing all of the property on which it expected to erect the new plant in The Dalles, is a well known fact. The company has refused to pay the price asked for two lots which are necessary for the erection of the plant on the location which has been selected. Deeds for other lots, which have been purchased by the company, are now in the hands of company officials. The Wittenberg-King company officials think the price asked for two remaining lots is exorbitant, compared with the price which was paid for other lots. It is declared upon reliable authority that one prominent official of the company has stated that the company will not build its new $80,000 plant in The Dalles unless this property difficulty can be satisfactorily adjusted, and there is a possibility that Medford or Independence will be favored over The Dalles in any event.

Ships Carload of Horses to Idaho.

Fred Coffelt of American Falls, Idaho, and two brothers, Ed. and Frank, were in Dallas yesterday arranging for the shipment of a carload of young horses for farm work to American Falls. The men, brothers of Robert Coffelt of this city, spent several days last week traveling around the country in search of this class of animals. The past week was marked by more activity in the stock market than has been evidenced for some time in Dallas. H. R. Keuhne and C. R. Organ of Tigard, Oregon, shipped out half a car of horses and half a car of cattle Saturday to Portland. Buyers report no difficulty in securing horses and cattle in this section; farmers seem quite willing to sell.

Big Demand For Fords.

Two carloads of Ford automobiles have been delivered to Polk county people within the past three weeks by the Shreeve garage, the Dallas agents. The cars are shipped out of the factory as soon as they are completed but the supply is unequal to the demand. From August 1, 1916 to February 1 of this year 320,000 Ford cars have actually been retailed, according to a communication from the factory, received by C. J. Shreeve. The local agents have 16 orders ahead, which they are unable to fill, at present.

Dinner and Dance At Imperial.

The first regular dinner and dance of a series will be given at the Imperial hotel tonight. Dinner will be served from six until eight at 50 cents a plate and the management urges all to reserve tables in advance if possible. After dinner, dancing will be enjoyed until a late hour. The Imperial plans to be hosts at one of these parties once each month so that the management may become acquainted with the people of Dallas and surrounding country.

Dr. L. A. Bollman and son, Paul, were visitors in Corvallis last Friday night where they attended the wrestling match between O. A. C. and the University of Washington, the team of the Oregon college winning by a lead of three points. Deed Bollman, a brother of the doctor and member of the Washington team, returned to Dallas with the doctor to spend Saturday.

Second Tax Turnover Is Made.

County Treasurer A. V. R. Snyder received the second turnover of tax money Saturday and it amounted to $10,775.40. Four hundred twenty receipts had been issued by the sheriff's office at the close of business Saturday night; this record shows much speedier payment than in previous years.
